MATTAPOISETT TOWN HALL NEWS

Norman Soares, patrolman in the Mattapoisett Police Department, was graduated last week in the 41st class at State Police Academy in Framingham, having completed the six-week course in local police training. He received a diploma and certificates in first aid and marksmanship. He has been a member of the Police Department for the last 10 years.

James Moran of the Police Department is taking a four-week course in Brockton for police school training.

A four-day Civil Defense School at the State Police Academy in Topsfield will be held in April and June. It is hoped that two men will be sent from Mattapoisett.

John Tarvis, contractor, will start work on the comfort station at Ned's Point early in May and it will be finished by May 30th. The complete cost will be $5486.50.

Joseph Tripp has resigned from the Regional School police duty. Selectmen will interview applicates and also for police matron.

REPUBLICAN TOWN COMMITTEE MEETING HELD

Greenwood Hartley, Jr. presided at the recent meeting of the Rochester Republican Town Committee which was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. Smith on Bates Road. Members voted to conduct a fund-raising drive in Rochester during the first week in April. The drive will be climaxed with a dinner honoring United States Senator Leverett Saltonstall on Patriots Day, April 19th, at the Commonwealth Armory in Boston. Several members present volunteered their services for the door-to-door canvass which will be planned by Mrs. Smith, finance chairman.

Chairman Hartley noted, "This will be an especially appropriate opportunity to honor Senator Saltonstall and at the same time raise money for the 1966 campaign. Major recipients of the funds raised will be candidates for the State Legislature where the Senator served for a number of years, and town and county candidates. Senator Saltonstall has served Massachusetts for 45 years as a leading statesman and this dinner will be a fitting tribute to a man whose qualities of sincerity, simplicity and years of dedicated service have made him many thousands of admirers."

Mrs. Smith noted that the town's quota for the year is $600. Anyone in town is welcome to help with the drive and may contact her for information and material. She has received a recent communication from the office of the Republican State Finance Committee stating, "In permitting a 'Salute to Saltonstall' dinner on April 19 at the Commonwealth Armory in Boston, 'Salty' insisted that all contributions for the dinner be allocated to maintaining the party organization and electing Republican members to the Massachusetts Legislature, thereby helping young men and women into Republican politics. This unselfish declaration by Senator Saltonstall, that all funds from the Patriot's Day dinner be used for the Republican Party, should stir in the hearts of every Republican an urge to give the Senator the greatest tribute ever accorded a public servant. "NO OTHER MAN IN MASSACHUSETTS' POLITICAL HISTORY HAS EVER AGREED TO A TESTIMONIAL DINNER WITH THE STIPULATION THAT THE ENTIRE PROCEEDS BE GIVEN TO HELP HIS PARTY."

Mr. Hartley also announced that Governor Volpe will meet with local Republicans at the Wareham Town Hall on Tuesday evening, April 5, between the hours of 6:30 to 9:00 P.M. He hopes for a good attendance of committee members if possible to represent Rochester.

Committee member, Frederick Underhill, Jr., turned in to the treasurer proceeds realized from a joint program with the Middleboro Town Committee which featured Mrs. Vera Underhill who gave a lecture on the Amish peoples. Mr. Underhill also advised that there is a new GOP State newspaper available to local Republicans which sells at only 1¢ per copy to cover mailing and is excellent reading.

Members discussed having a dance later in the year and also plan to have a dinner and speakers sometime in May. Several suggestions were made of ways to welcome new voters and assist them. Prior to the annual town meeting in March the Rochester Committee mailed a letter to voters and enclosed information on proper procedure to be followed on the floor at a town meeting.

Present in addition to the above-named were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gibbs, Mrs. Greenwood Hartley, Sr., Hoyle Demoranville, Joseph Chamberlain, Miss Anne P. Smith and Mr. Albert Jenney.

Night program in its hall in Wareham when Barry Denham of Mattapoisett Grange was the speaker to a fine audience of young people. He spoke on the many opportunities a person can receive as a member of a Grange, especially the youth of the State and Nation, beginning from the Junior Grange up through the national as a 7th degree member. A question period followed his talk, and Barry was ready with the answers in his usual pleasant manner.

Having gone through the Junior Grange, is a past Junior master, receiving the Super J. G. award from Nation, and now overseer of the Subordinate Grange, Barry was very capable of answering the questions.

EDMUND ANDREWS DIES

Edmund Andrews of School Street, Marion died Saturday night at St. Luke's Hospital, New Bedford, at the age of 52.

Eddie Andrews was one of the most noted tennis stars every produced in this area and was, in addition, one of Marion's best known and best liked residents. The former New England Tennis champion was very prominent in the late 1930's and early 40's as an active star and he gained wide recognition for his form and numerous victories on the courts. As a resident of Marion, Mr. Andrews has continued to contribute to the game through his teaching of tennis to young people. He owned and operated the Marion Sports Shop on Front Street. As a person and as an athlete, Eddie was known and admired by hundreds of friends who are saddened by his death.

Clark, Peases Point, Mattapoisett, to benefit the scholarship fund of the Mattapoisett Woman's Club. Those wishing to attend are asked to call Mrs. Harlan C. Broadwater, chairman, 758-3763, for reservations. Prizes will be awarded. Different games will be available for those wishing to play canasta, whist, etc. Limited transportation in town will be available.

GRANGE MEMBERS ATTEND BAY STATE POMONA

Eight members of Sippican Pomona Grange attended Bay State Pomona at Oak Hill Grange, in Attleboro. The officers of Mayflower South filled the chairs, and furnished the evening program, which was a pageant, entitled, "Memory", written and directed by Henry Hayford, a State Grange Deputy, from Kingston. The afternoon program was presented by the Oak Hill lecturer. The main speaker, introduced by State Lecturer, Daphne Baker Sears, was Attorney Woodrow Tucker, master of the Rhode Island State Grange, who is also an officer in

POMONA GUESTS AT MATTAPOISETT

Sippican Pomona members were guests of Mattapoisett Grange last Saturday with the worthy master, Frank Jefferson of Middleboro, presiding

The afternoon lecturer's hour was in charge of the Mattapoisett Junior Grange. The boys and girls opened its program with a drill attired in the Junior uniforms of caps and capes of red satin lined with gold.

The officers then put on a demonstration of its meeting. Master Wayne Sylvia presided and chose the State Junior Superintendent, Mrs. Shirley Murphy; and Past State Secretary, Albert Thomas, as his honored guests.

Mark Harris reported on agriculture. Jane Harris, Home and Community Service chairman, reported on the work her committee has done. She then had the State Superintendent escorted to the altar and presented her with a check for the Greek Team project, a Junior Grange project that is nationwide. Lecturer, Joseph Alves presented her with a red geranium plant.

The lecturer then presented the following program: clarinet and piano, "Melody of Love", by William Sylvia with Mr. Walter Caswell at the piano; "Red Roses for a Blue Lady", by Wayne Sylvia on the trumpet. Excerpts of the Junior Grange history taken from the works of the late High Priest of Demeter, Charles M. Gardner, were read by Joann Silva. A vocal solo, "How Great Thou Art", was by Mark Harris. Harlene Fearing recited the poem, "It Pays to Look", by Floyd Barrett of Ohio. Mark Harris played "Onward Christian Soldiers" on his trumpet. "Country Gardens" was played by Mark Breton on his trumpet. Closing number was "Battle Hymn of the Republic" by clarinets, Gail Bauer, Billy Sylvia; trumpets, Mark Harris, Mark Breton and Wayne Sylvia.

The program was most heartily received by the audience. Mrs. Murphy spoke of her pleasure of being at the meeting, extending Easter wishes in her remarks. Mr. Thomas thanked the Juniors for the honor extended to him, by dedicating the Junior Program Book to him. He also congratulated the young folks on their fine work.

The meeting closed with the boys and girls demonstrating a retiring drill.

Supper was served in the dining hall by Mrs. Anna J. Bradley as chairman, assisted by Mrs. Ruby Barber, Mrs. Ruth Shaw, Mrs. Mildred LeBaron, Albert Pemberton, George Bradley, Mr. and Mrs. William Smith, Susan and Christine Bence, Doris Fearing, Donna Hubbard, Randy Randall, Barry Denham and Junior members, Wayne Sylvia, Billy Sylvia; and Lemuel LeBaron, treasurer.

Mrs. Earle Wilson was representative for the Pomona Master for the day.

The evening program was presented by the Pomona Lecturer, Mrs. Irene Jefferson, who presented the choir from the Christ Baptist Church in East Freetown, who expressed the Easter Story in Readings, Solos and Chorus

ROCHESTER BOWLING LEAGUE, MARCH 29

With one week of bowling left, the Rochester Bowling League standings tightened. Hartley Saw Mill continued to hold top spot by taking two points from Sturtevant & Hook. Big John Cebula pooled 404 ducks for the winners with John Hayes hitting a 362 triple for Sturtevant & Hook. Knotty Pine Cafe kept their hopes alive by winning two points from Lawrence Poultry Farm. Barney Jefferson paced Knotty Pine with a 397 and Art Tripp led the losers with a 395. Ed Leary turned in a 386 for Hiller's Garage and a sweep over Lloyd's Market. Don Gifford's 360 was tops for Lloyd's. Hartley's Garage crawled out of the cellar by pinning a 2 to 1 loss on Herb's TV Shop. Wally Wojtkonski sparked the Garage with his 366 and Gus Johnson pegged a 357 for Herb's.

YEARS AGO by C.M.

150 Years Ago -- 1815-1816

Although the hurricane and the epidemic took a terrific toll of property and lives from September through May, the shipbuilding business rebounded and flourished with surprising vigor. The Ship Registry Records for the next few years are rather meager, but we can gather the names of quite a few vessels. It is interesting to trace the careers of some of them.

We know from a separate record that in the summer of 1815, a few months after the conclusion of the war, "4 or 5 ships are now building here for Nantucket" (for whaling): but we know the name of only one, the ship George, 359 Tons. She was one of those many whalers that sailed around the Horn voyage after voyage for so many years in contrast to the many whalers that made a voyage or two or three, then were wrecked or burned or captured or damaged beyond repair.

The George made nine whaling voyages from Nantucket and then was sold to Fairhaven whence she made seven more. On her last voyage she was reported in the Whaleman's Shipping List, Nov. 2, 1852: "Ship George of Fairhaven is reported near Bering Straits in May, had lost two men, who were frozen at the masthead, and fell from aloft; afterwards the George was compelled to leave the (whaling) grounds in consequence of damage sustained by ice, and put into Petro Paulovski in company with another ship."

Five year later (1857) the George was condemned in Honolulu and was broken up.

We know the names, and nothing else, of three trading sloops built in 1815: Elizabeth, 83 T; Phoenix, 82 T.; and Barstow, 80 T. (obviously built in a Barstow yard). The only other vessel built in this year that we know about was the Schooner, later Brig, Fenelon, of 115 T. She was launched late in the fall (she must have been one of those refloated after the hurricane) and was owned by Matthew Mayhew, who was also her captain, and William LeBaron, and a group from Fairhaven. Capt. Mayhew married a daughter of Minister LeBaron and built and lived in the house just west of the Grange Hall. William LeBaron was thus his brother-in-law. William built the house that stood diagonally across from the Grange Hall (where the Village

BAND INVITES MUSICIANS TO JOIN

Rehearsals started Monday, April 4th, at the Mattapoisett Town Hall for the Town Band. Director John Pandolfi and assistant, Paul Alves, have asked that an invitation be issued to any resident who plays an instrument and who would like to join the band, to contact Mr. Alves at 33 Park Street, Mattapoisett, 758-6637. They are very much interested in finding townspeople who enjoy playing so that the band can be filled in with Mattapoisett people, if possible. In the summer, the band plays on Wednesdays at Shipyard Park to continue a most enjoyable tradition for both musicians and the listeners who are entertained.

TO THE EDITOR

Our recent first annual Antique Show and Sale was a success beyond our expectations and we feel that much credit for this should be given to you for the excellent coverage given us in your paper. We are most appreciative.

Sincerely,
Bernice Hardy,
President, Rochester Woman's Club.

Drug Store, etc., now stand) which was later owned and lived in by Arvin Cannon, the Master Builder, and which was later known as the Jones House.

The Schooner Fenelon was built both for the coastwise and European trade, sailing from Mattapoisett and Fairhaven. For instance, the New Bedford Morning Mercury for April 9, 1819, reports: "Ar. Apr. 6, Sch. Fenelon, Mayhew (Master), 38 days from Lisbon with a cargo of salt and lemons, to Messrs. R. and A. Gibbs, Fairhaven." The previous year she had been on a voyage to the Chesapeake and re-registered at Tappannock, with Capt. Moores Rogers of Mattapoisett as Master. (He built and lived in large house on lower Main Street now owned by Mrs. Suzan.)

In 1822 the Fenelon was sold to Beverly and her rig altered to a brig. In 1825 she was sold to Salem. She continued in the coastwise trade until she was condemned at St. Thomas, W.I.I. in December, 1831.

There is no way of telling what the "4 or 5 ships now building here for Nantucket" were named or what eventually happened to them.

for the coffee hour which precedes the program, scheduled for 10:30. Any Woman's Club member is invited to attend if she makes it known to her hostess in advance, or informs the Fine Arts chairman, Miss Lydia LeB. Walker, at 758-2102. An outstanding meeting is expected for this final one of the season for the Fine Arts Group.

Representing the Mattapoisett Woman's Club on Sunday, March 27th, at the State Federation showing of paintings at Memorial Hall in Plymouth from 2 to 4 o'clock were club president, Mrs. Leonard A. Burnham, and Fine Arts chairman, Miss Lydia LeB. Walker. It is hoped that artists from the local club will also be represented in another year as many of the fine paintings which appeared on "Show and Tell Day" March 24th were deserving of further showing on a statewide basis. It is not too soon to start making preparations for such an event.

ORRHS ALUMNAE HOLD PANEL DISCUSSION

Five alumnae of Old Rochester Regional High School held a panel discussion for the Junior and Senior girls on Thursday, March 31. Catherine Gibbs, who is training at the Truesdale Hospital School of Nursing in Fall River; Janet Steff, who attends the University of Vermont; Ann Lacey, Mt. Holyoke; Elizabeth Maxwell, Simmons College; and Barbara Harriman, who attends the State College at Bridgewater, discussed their respective colleges. The object of the discussion was to make suggestions to the girls who will be attending college next year about clothes, room furnishings and social life. At the close of the discussion each panelist gave one word of advice which she considered important for a girl to follow so that her first year in college would prove to be a happy and profitable one.

BEAUTICIAN SPEAKS AT ORRHS

On Tuesday, March 29, Mrs. Dorothy Matthews, of Marion, spoke to a group of twenty-five girls at the Old Rochester Regional High School on the care of hair, hairstyling and the proper use of cosmetics which all lead to good grooming.
